COUNT I

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT AND UNFAIR COMPETITION

14. Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. created a website with the domain name to promote and advertise his business.

15. Defendant used the Indianapolis Night Photo to draw or attract prospective customers to Defendant's business.

16. Defendant is liable to Plaintiff because it had the right and ability to control and supervise the content of <http://www.teamsoftinc.com> and to control and supervise the access of third party Internet users to that website.

17. Upon information and belief, the Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. downloaded or took the Indianapolis Night Photo from the internet without permission from the owner, Richard N. Bell and copied on to a webserver controlled by the Defendant.

18. In April 2016, the Plaintiff discovered through the computer program “Google images” that the website of the Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. contained the Indianapolis Night photo at which TeamSoft, Inc. even attaches his own copyright to the page contains the Indianapolis Night photo at <http://www.teamsoftinc.com/job-by-location.html>.

19. Defendant did not disclose the source of the stolen Indianapolis Night Photo or otherwise conferred credit to the owner; instead, Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. willfully and recklessly falsely claimed that it owned the copyrights of all images and photos contained the Defendant’s website of teamsoftinc.com including Indianapolis Night Photo and thereby disparaged the Plaintiff.

20. During the year 2016, the website of Defendant, TeamSoft, Inc. published the Indianapolis Night Photo for its commercial use without paying for said use and without obtaining the necessary authorization from the Plaintiff, the copyright owner.

21. While the Defendant will know the exact date of first publication, based upon the Plaintiff's investigation, during the year 2016, Defendant began publishing the Indianapolis Night photo and used the Indianapolis Night photo for their commercial use without paying for said use and without obtaining the necessary authorization from the Plaintiff.

22. The Defendant knew that they did not own Indianapolis Night photo and knew the Defendant had not obtained the rights to publish the Indianapolis Night photo, but recklessly and falsely represented to the world otherwise.

24. Defendant refuses to pay for the unauthorized use of Indianapolis Night Photo

25. Defendant has not agreed be enjoined from using the Indianapolis Night Photo

26. Defendant has engaged in unfair trade practices and unfair competition in connection with its publication of the Indianapolis Night photo, thus causing irreparable damage.

27. Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. continues infringing conduct which has caused and is causing substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

28. There is a risk of infringing conduct which has caused and will likely cause substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

29. Plaintiff has complied in all respects with 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., and secured the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the copyrights of the above-referenced works.

30. Plaintiff has been and still is the sole proprietor of all rights, title, and interest in and to the copyrights in their respective works as referenced above.

31. Defendant TeamSoft, Inc.'s conduct violates the exclusive rights belonging to Plaintiff as owner of the copyrights, including without limitation Plaintiff's rights under 17 U.S.C. § 106.

32. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that, as a direct and proximate result of their wrongful conduct, Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. has realized and continues to realize profits and other benefits rightfully belonging to Plaintiff. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek an award of damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 504 and 505.

33. Defendant's infringing conduct has also caused and is causing substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

34. Defendant has willfully and deliberately engaged in, and, is willfully engaging in, the acts complained of with oppression, fraud, and malice (“Acts”) and in conscious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff. Plaintiff is, therefore, entitled to the maximum statutory damages allowable.

35. Examples of these willfully and deliberately Acts, include but not limited to the following:

- a. Defendant downloaded or took the Indianapolis Night photo from the internet and included said photo on the Defendant’s website.
- b. Defendant failed to designate the source of the stolen Indianapolis Night photo or otherwise confer credit to the owner.

- e. Defendants has not paid anyone for the right to use Indianapolis Night photo, but instead fraudulently declared that the Defendant owned the copyrights to the Indianapolis Night Photo

36. As a consequence of this dispute between the parties as to the rights, title, and interest in the copyrighted articles described above, and pursuant to the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Plaintiff also seek a resolution of this ongoing controversy by a declaration of this Court as to the rights of the respective parties in this matter.

THEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. as follows:

- a. Declaring that Defendant's unauthorized conduct violates Plaintiff's rights under common law and the Federal Copyright Act;
- b. Immediately and permanently enjoining Defendant TeamSoft, Inc., their members, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, representatives, attorneys, related companies, successors, assigns, and all others in active concert or participation with them from copying and republishing any of Plaintiff's copyrighted articles or copyrighted material without consent or otherwise infringing Plaintiff's copyrights or other rights in any manner;
- c. Ordering Defendant TeamSoft, Inc. to account to Plaintiff for all gains, profits, and advantages derived by Defendants by their infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights or such damages as are proper, and since Defendant intentionally infringed plaintiff's copyrights, for the maximum allowable statutory damages for each violation;
- d. Awarding Plaintiff actual and/or statutory damages for Defendant copyright infringement in an amount to be determined at trial;
- e. Awarding Plaintiff their costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and disbursements in this action, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505; and
- f. Awarding Plaintiff such other and further relief as is just and proper.
