COUNT I

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT AND UNFAIR COMPETITION

15. Defendant MRNISO created a website for the World Wide Web at <http://mrniso.org> to promote and advertise the organization and used the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo on its website.

16. Defendant MRNISO copied and published the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo in its Brochure promoting the 2015 MRNISO Spring Conference.

17. Defendant, POWELL as Executive Director of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council, a governmental unit of the state of Indiana is responsible by directing its employees to create a website in.gov/ipac to promote and advertise its own business.

18. Defendant POWELL permitted employees of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council, to republish the 2015 MRNISO Spring Conference Brochure containing the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo without permission from the owner at http://www.in.gov/ipac/files/MRNISO\_Spring\_Conference\_Brochure\_2015.pdf.

19. 17 U.S. C. § 501(a) states: “Anyone who violates any of the exclusive rights of the copyright owner as provided by sections 106 through 122 or of the author as provided in section 106A(a), or who imports copies or phonorecords into the United States in violation of section 602, is an infringer of the copyright or right of the author, as the case may be. For purposes of this chapter (other than section 506), any reference to copyright shall be deemed to include the rights conferred by section 106A(a). As used in this subsection, the term “anyone” includes any State, any instrumentality of a State, and any officer or employee of a State or instrumentality of a State acting in his or her official capacity. Any State, and any such instrumentality, officer, or employee, shall be subject to the provisions of this title in the same manner and to the same extent as any nongovernmental entity.

20. Defendants POWELL and MRNISO are liable to Plaintiff because each Defendant had ability to control and supervise the content of mrniso.org and in.gov/ipac and to control and supervise the access of third party Internet users to those websites.

21. Upon information and belief, the Defendant MRNISO downloaded or took the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo from the internet without permission from the owner, Richard N. Bell and copied on to a Brochure controlled by the Defendant MRNISO.

22. In April 2016, the Plaintiff discovered through the computer program “Google images” displayed the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo at

23. Neither Defendant MRNISO or POWELL disclosed the source of the stolen Indianapolis Nighttime Photo or otherwise conferred credit to the owner; instead, the Defendants willfully and recklessly falsely claimed that each owned the copyrights of all images and photos contained on the website of including Indianapolis Nighttime Photo and thereby disparaged the Plaintiff.

24. During the year 2015, the website of Defendants MRNISO or POWELL caused to publish the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo for its commercial use without paying for said use and without obtaining the necessary authorization from the Plaintiff, the copyright owner.

25. While the Defendants MRNISO or POWELL will know the exact date of first publication, based upon the Plaintiff's investigation, during the year 2015, Defendant began publishing the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo and used the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo for their commercial use without paying for said use and without obtaining the necessary authorization from the Plaintiff.

26. The Defendants knew that neither owned Indianapolis Nighttime Photo and knew the Defendants had not obtained the rights to publish the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, but recklessly and falsely represented to the world otherwise.

27. Defendants MRNISO or POWELL have not paid anyone for the right to publish the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, but instead fraudulently declared that the Defendant owned the copyrights to the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

28. Defendants MRNISO and POWELL refuse to pay for the unauthorized use of Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

29. Defendants MRNISO and POWELL have not agreed be enjoined from using the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

30. Defendants MRNISO and POWELL have engaged in unfair trade practices and unfair competition in connection with its publication of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, and that Defendant' publication of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo failed to designate the source of the stolen Indianapolis Nighttime Photo or otherwise confer credit to the owner and thereby such conduct has disparaged the Plaintiff thus causing irreparable damage.

31. Defendants MRNISO and POWELL continue infringing conduct which has caused and is causing substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

32. There is a risk of infringing conduct which has caused and will likely cause substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

33. After the Defendants MRNISO and POWELL caused to publish the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, Defendant Defendants POWELL permitted third parties to access to the respective webpage

34. Defendants POWELL and MRNISO are vicariously liable for each such downloaded copy of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo initiated by each third party Internet User regardless of whether Defendant was aware that the third party was creating the downloaded copy.

35. Defendants are liable for all profits resulting from each downloaded copy of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo created by each such third party Internet User.

36. Defendants POWELL and MRNISO are liable for copyright infringement regardless of whether Defendant knew that any use of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo would infringe copyrights Plaintiff owns.

37. The Plaintiff has fully complied with the Tort Claim statute of Indiana.

38. The Plaintiff notified the Attorney General of Indiana and submitted a Tort Notice to the State of Indiana and the Claim Number 16-05915 was denied.

39. Plaintiff has complied in all respects with 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., and secured the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the copyrights of the above-referenced works.

40. Plaintiff has been and still is the sole proprietor of all rights, title, and interest in and to the copyrights in their respective works as referenced above.

41. Defendants POWELL and MRNISO conduct violates the exclusive rights belonging to Plaintiff as owner of the copyrights, including without limitation Plaintiff's rights under 17 U.S.C. § 106.

42. Plaintiff seeks damages for Defendants' use of Plaintiff's advertising idea comprising the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

43. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that, as a direct and proximate result of their wrongful conduct, Defendants POWELL and MRNISO have realized and continues to realize profits and other benefits rightfully belonging to Plaintiff. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek an award of damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 504 and 505.

44. Defendants infringing conduct has also caused and is causing substantial and irreparable injury and damage to Plaintiff in an amount not capable of determination, and, unless restrained, will cause further irreparable injury, leaving the Plaintiff with no adequate remedy at law.

45. Plaintiff seeks an injunction to enjoin Defendants from “republishing” any of your copyrighted materials that, if granted, would require that the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo not be available on

http://www.in.gov/ipac/files/MRNISO\_Spring\_Conference\_Brochure\_2015.pdf which would thereby make it impossible for third party Internet users to download copies of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo from said webpage.

46. Defendants POWELL and MRNISO have willfully and deliberately engaged in, and, is willfully engaging in, the acts complained of with oppression, fraud, and malice (“Acts”) and in conscious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff. Plaintiff is, therefore, entitled to the maximum statutory damages allowable.

47. Examples of these willfully and deliberately Acts, include but not limited to the following:

- a. Defendants downloaded or took the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo from the internet and included said photo on the Defendant’s website.
- b. Defendants failed to designate the source of the stolen Indianapolis Nighttime Photo or otherwise confer credit to the owner.
- c. Defendants recklessly, willfully and falsely asserted that the Defendant owned the copyrights of all content, images and photos contained in the Defendant’s website including Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

- d. Defendants knew that it did not own Indianapolis Nighttime Photo and knew the Defendant had not obtained the rights to publish the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, but deliberately and falsely represented to the world otherwise.
- e. Defendants has not paid anyone for the right to use Indianapolis Nighttime Photo, but instead fraudulently declared that the Defendants owned the copyrights to the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo.

48. As a consequence of this dispute between the parties as to the rights, title, and interest in the copyrighted articles described above, and pursuant to the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Plaintiff also seek a resolution of this ongoing controversy by a declaration of this Court as to the rights of the respective parties in this matter.

THEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants POWELL and MRNISO as follows:

- a. Declaring that Defendant's unauthorized conduct violates Plaintiff's rights under common law and the Federal Copyright Act;
- b. Immediately and permanently enjoining Defendants POWELL and MRNISO, their members, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, representatives, attorneys, related companies, successors, assigns, and all others in active concert or participation with them from copying and republishing any of Plaintiff's copyrighted articles or copyrighted material without consent or otherwise infringing Plaintiff's copyrights or other rights in any manner;
- c. Enjoin Defendants from "republishing" any of your copyrighted materials that, if granted, would require that the Indianapolis

Nighttime Photo not be available on ag.purdue.edu which would thereby make it impossible for third party Internet users to download copies of the Indianapolis Nighttime Photo from said webpage.

- d. Ordering Defendants POWELL and MRNISO to account to Plaintiff for all gains, profits, and advantages derived by Defendant, and third party users by their infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights or such damages as are proper, and since Defendants intentionally infringed plaintiff's copyrights, for the maximum allowable statutory damages for each violation;
- e. Awarding Plaintiff actual and/or statutory damages for Defendants POWELL and MRNISO copyright infringement in an amount to be determined at trial;
- f. Awarding Plaintiff their costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and disbursements in this action, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505; and
- g. Awarding Plaintiff such other and further relief as is just and proper.
